AKC Code of Sportsmanship

PREFACE: The sport of purebred dog competitive events dates prior to 1884, the year of AKC's birth. Shared values of those involved in the sport include principles of sportsmanship. They are practiced in all sectors of our sport: conformation, performance and companionship. Many believe that these principles of sportsmanship are the prime reason why our sport has thrived for over one hundred years. With the belief that it is useful to periodically articulate the fundamentals of our sport, this code is presented.

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behavior.
- The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- The sportsman respects the AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of their competition and the effort of competitors.
- Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
- Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
- Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
- Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
- Sportsmen refuse to embarrass the sport, the American Kennel Club, or themselves while taking part in the sport.

Atlanta Obedience Club welcomes
Lara Avery
2 day Competition Obedience Seminar
March 23 & 24, 2024

As a dog trainer, Lara Avery has had a successful career competing nationally over the past 20 years. She has achieved numerous titles in conformation, herding and agility while earning numerous #1 national wins and rankings in Obedience. Other accomplishments include an OTCH10 as well as OTCH titles on 5 different dogs, multiple perfect 200's, High in Trials, and having the #1 ranked Border Collie and Herding Dog in the nation.

Lara is constantly pursuing the most positive and progressive way to train dogs for competition. Her current OTCH dog, Sailor, has been taught the hand touch heeling method without ever needing to use a leash or collar and is all reward based. This method has earned multiple 200's and an OTCH this past year. Competing in the horse world and winning at both the National and World level has also made her a more well-rounded competitor who can show you how to channel nerves into winning energy! Lara takes great pride in her students' successes, from their first title or to an OTCH. She has experience working with many different breeds. Lara consistently customizes her methods to bring the optimum out of each team.

Lara currently teaches classes and lessons at her facility in Somers, CT. Join Star Power Dog Training on Facebook for more information about Lara, her dogs, and her students' accomplishments!
